The Weedbine Round the Boor.

I am thinking, thinking, Jamie,
Of the time I was your bride;
Of the cottage in the valley,
By the laughing streamlet's elde,
Of the trees which moved above it, In those sunny days of yore;
And the rows we used to whisper
'Reath the woodbine round the deer.

I am thinking, thinking, Josele,
For memory loves to twice
Her garlands round those hours bright, As round the oak the vine : I'm thinking how, to gratitude, -Each glad thought would upword coar, How we talked of Heaven, Jamle,

'Neath the woodbins round the door. I am thinking, thinking, Jamie, As the long years past away,
How your bounding step grew feeble
And your hair so silvery gray;
How my heart scamed hushed forever
As you smiled on me no more

As they bere you, cold and lifeless, 'Neath the woodbine round the door. I am thinking, thinking, Jamie,
In my arm-chair, worn and old,
Of our lost, our darling Lilly,
With her curls of chining gold;
How her voice, so full of music,
Like a bird would upward soar. O ! she seemed an angel sloging.

Meath the woodbloo round the door. I am thinking, thinking, Jamie, In the twilight dim and grey, Of the friends who once were with me, Of the loved-ones passed away. And I pray that I may meet them When the dream of life is o'er, When the angels call me, waiting

On this point the Olobe of Wednesday has the following !-

"The exhibit of Canadian prosperity for which hir. Guit has made himself responsible, is too cruelly tatirical to be amusing. If what he tells the Lowlogors were true, Canada would bothe commercial ozala of the Western world. " An a great auxiety exists, to learn the effect on the revenue produced by the operation of the tariff framed by Mr Galt, I hasten to make public the gratifying fact that the Customs duties collected in 1859 exceed those of the proceding year, by the large amount of upteards of one million dollars. Without prejending to perfect accuracy, I believe the sum paid in for Customs during the year just past, amounted to musidetable more than £4,400,000, while it 1858 it reacked only $2,368,757. I may possibly be in error to some insignificant extent, but it is certain that the excess in favor of 1859 is more than $1,070,000 (one million and seventy thousand dollars.)"

We clip the foregoing; from the Quebec Correspondent of the Toronto Colonist which shows pretty conclusively, on Ministerial conlession, that the people are paying pretly weetly for sustaining Coalition Governments, and also for the " Double shuffle," which made Mr. Galt Finance Minister of Canada, The writer of the above extract says-" I basten to make public the gratifying fact that the Custom's duties of 1859 exceed those of the preceding year, by the large amount of upwards of one million dollars !" A "gratifying fact," truly, to know that Mr Galt's scheme has drawn from the honest farmers, has also been received; but for the reason assigned mechanics and artizons of Canada, " upwards of one million" more taxes in solid dollars, ter. during 1859, than was squeezed out by his predecessor, Mr Cayley, in 1858. organs re-echo the centiment and shout exult logly over the clever financiering of Mr. Galt. The same correspondent goes on to say that "the excise duties have increased in still greater ratio, having more than doubled during the past year;" and then sums up by saying the excess to the revenue in " fevor of 1859, is $1,231,745,"-in other words," "showing a total increase closely approaching a million and a quarter of dollars." Notwithstanding this tremendous increase in the taxa. ada journals, we learn that Parliament will tion of the country, Mr Galt bas been compelled to seek the offices of stock-brokers in England to replenish the treasury. Government organs may try to make it appear that this result is very " gratifying ;" but the country generally cannot regard it in any other light than exhibiting the enormous expense they are compelled to pay to sustain a Coalijion and Railway Jobbing Administration.

DEAF AND DUMB ASSOCIATION.

The Warden read a communication from the Rev. T. S. Kennedy on behalf of the Deal and Dumb Association. The Rev. gentle man observed that last year the Council generously roted the sum of $400 to be appropriat ed for the board and education of deal mutes residing within the county. For the half year ending the 31st December last, the bene ficiaries of the Council were two-Bernard Carley and Isabella Hamley-for whom the sum of $140 was drawn, and also, he believe $10 for clothes for the boy. The Association trusted that the Council would authorize the Preasurer of the County to pay to the Trea surer of the Association a like amount for th half-year ending 31st June next. The Rev gentleman also desired to recommend to the liberality of the Council Thomas Johnson, young man of excellent character. His fat er was dead and his mother was poor. was born in the county. During the short period Johnson had been at school be made such progress that there could be little doub that in two years he would be able to converse and transact business in the English language-a result which would amply repay the County for the cost of his board and education in the meanwhile.

The editorial conductor of the Globe can be best estimated by the uninterrepted success that has attended its publication. But a constitutional cricis demands further exertion in that direction, and it will be supplied. In regard to news fresh efforts will be used to supply to the readers of the Globe the earliest and most copious intelligence from all parts of the world. Correspondence is received from Great Britain, British Columbia, the North West Territory, and all that transpires at home and in the United States is dilligently recorded. Special attention is devoted to commercial intelligence; the markets are reported more fully than in any other journal.

A limited space is devoted to agricultural subjects, and everything which tends to the developement of the most important branch of Canadian industry receives special attention.

MOFFATIS LIFE PILLS.—The bigh and envied celebrity which this pre-eminent medicine has acquired for its invariable efficacy in all the diseases which it professes to cure, has rendered the usual practice of estentations pulling not only unoccessary but unweithy of them. They are known by their fruits; their good works testify for them, and they there not by the faith of the credulous. In all cases of costiveness, drapep is, billions and liver affections, piles, rhoumatism, fovers and aguen, obstinate head-zohes, and all general derangements of health, these l'ills have invari-bly proved a certain and speedy remedy. A single trial will place the Life Pills beyond the reach of competition in the estimation of every patient. 1
